

Sam Smith

100 Broadway Lane
New Parkland, CA, 91010
Cell: (555) 987-1234 | example-email@example.com

Professional Summary

Licensed Math Teacher with the certification necessary to teach high school in the state of California. Awarded and graded assignments given to students, proctored exams and met with both students and their parents after school and during conferences. Strength at teaching pre-algebra through calculus classes.

Core Qualifications

- Licensed Math Teacher
- Handling of Teenage Students
- Parent/Teacher Conferences
- Pre-Algebra Through Calculus
- Test Proctoring
- Curriculum Design and Development

Experience

Math Teacher, June 2013 – May 2015
New Cityland High School – New Cityland, CA

- Taught six classes during the school year for freshmen through senior year students
- Responsible for designing and implementing a summer school program for students behind in their math classes
- Acted as the student advisor for the math club and went with students to competitions
- Discussed students' work with them and their parents in conferences
- Created new assignments for students and determined their grades at the end of the year

Math Teacher, August 2011 – May 2013
Our Lady of Angels High School – Los Angeles, CA

- Taught two lower level classes and three upper level math classes for beginner and advanced students
- Designed and developed a new curriculum based around the fundamentals of math
- Offered after school tutoring for students struggling in their classes
- Created a system for rewarding students with small prizes for improving their grades and doing better on tests

Education

2011 Bachelor of Science, Education with a concentration in math education
University of California – Los Angeles, CA