

FULL NAME
Full Address | Phone/Cell | Email

Objective

Obtain a position as an elementary School Teacher that will utilize my strong dedication to children's development and to their educational needs

Work Experience

Hazelwood School District – St. Louis, MO (2010 to Present)

Elementary Teacher

- Helped develop Hazelwood School District Social Studies curriculum for grade 4
- Lead the building to 100% proficiency in fourth grade writing on the MAP test
- Teacher of the Year 2012-2013
- Proficient in technology inclusion in the classroom including Promethean, Smart Board, and iPad incorporation
- Developed grade-level appropriate assessments and led classroom instruction in all basic subject areas for grades (taught grades 1-5)
- Orchestrated events to involve parents and community in school functions (parent involvement committee member)
- Member of district Cultural Competence Committee
- Established strategies to increase rigor and relevance of classroom activities
- Developed Communication Arts curriculum

Universal Institute Charter School – Philadelphia, PA (2007 to 2010)

Elementary Teacher

- Helped students meet standards of learning for their grade level.
- Helped students raise their literacy levels.
- Taught first grade students Math, English, Science and Social Science Lesson.
- Raised students' literacy levels.
- Helped meet standards of learning for their grade level.

Christian County Board of Education (2005 to 2007)

Elementary Teacher

- Taught curriculum based instruction daily.
- Administrated diagnostic and cognitive assessments.
- Classroom management and discipline.
- Improved Standardized testing/scoring
- Collaborated with other elementary instructors.
- Implemented computer based instruction.

Hazelwood School District – St. Louis, MO (2000 to 2005)

Educational Consultant

- Provided leadership for developing innovative challenging curricula and programs for at risk students
- Handled staff issues toward effective solutions as well as creating harmony among the various departments for positive work results
- Deciding guidelines, principles, and goals for organizational progress
- Facilitated parental interpretation and use of measurement tools
- Collaborated and implemented a reporting system for assessments during data teams
- Spearheaded drive to correlate data to standardized test proficiency
- Started initiative for individual teacher websites
- Attended 11 technology workshops regarding Education Technology
- Addressed various community members about the significance of Hazelwood School District bond issues
- Maintained an excellent relationship with children, parents, and staff

Education

Master of Arts in Education Administration and Supervision – University of Missouri-St. Louis

Bachelor of Arts in Education – Fontbonne University