

Sonia Phillips

PO Box, South Freeway Fort, Texarkana, TX-23443

Phone | Email

OBJECTIVE

Looking for a challenging role as a Nurse in Surgical Care.

SKILLS

- Experienced and specialized in the tracheotomy care, physical therapy, ventilator and dressing of burn patients.
- Coordinated the planning of admission and discharge, home care, occupational therapist etc.
- Great ability of organizational and demonstration skills both written and verbal regarding tracheotomies.
- Prepared the medical education videos for new staff members with advance and specialized information.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Nurse, Washington Hospital, Washington

2005-present

- Responsible for the budgeting, coordination of the staff and monitoring.
- As a primary nurse care communicated with the doctors and senior health care authorities.
- Deals with the patient and patient's family for the formalities of the hospital.
- Prepared the brochures for the patient and their families and also participated in the preparation of the medical education videos.

Participated in various workshops and in post-operation care with many problems.

Nurse, St. Stephen Hospital, Colfax, Washington

2002-2005

- Responsible for providing the head charge on 35-bed of surgical unit.
- Responsible for providing the therapies and treatments on scheduled time.
- Coordinated the discharge planning, home care and therapies.

EDUCATION

University of Washington, Washington

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Certified in Surgical Nursing Course.

REFERENCE

Dr. Ragan Matt
Head of Surgical Department
Washington Hospital, Washington